

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

The Complete Player Baseball Camp Sponsored by Al Anderson's Source For Sports

Sonntag Sports Management and Al Anderson's Source for Sports are pleased to announce the formation of a partnership between the two to help offer skills based training for young baseball players in Saskatoon and area. Sonntag Sports Management is offering a series of baseball skills training camps including The Complete Player Camp and The Complete Pitcher camp for all ages of baseball players, from Rookie age to Midget age. Galen Sonntag, President and Owner of Sonntag Sports Management states, "The baseball season in Saskatchewan can be so short, often limited by the weather, that coaches and players rarely have an opportunity to work specifically on focused skill development. Too often evaluations happen in April and that is the first time many kids up a bat, bat, and glove since the previous summer. Teams are chosen and games begin within a couple of weeks, weather permitting. What our camps do is bring skill development indoors during the off-season."

Sonntag Sports Management is offering camps for players who want to improve their fielding, base running, hitting, and mental approach to the game as well as specific clinics for the development of hitting and pitching. Galen Sonntag of Sonntag Sports Management has coached minor baseball in Saskatchewan for over 10 years with experience from Rookie baseball to Midget AAA. Galen previously played with Team Canada and was a member of the Lewis-Clark State College Warriors, winning 3 National Collegiate Baseball Championships (1985, 1987, 1988) and being selected to the All-American Team and Academic All-American teams in 1987. "One of the important aspects of our camps is that we are aligning ourselves with the Long Term Athlete Development model which was developed by Baseball Canada and implemented by Saskatchewan Baseball," says Sonntag. "We are extremely pleased to work with the team at Al Anderson's. They have a tremendous selection of baseball gear and the staff go out of their way to help you choose the right gear."

Al Anderson's Source for Sports has been a leading retailer of sporting goods in Saskatoon for 57 years and continues the tradition by helping support athlete develop programs such as The Complete Player and The Complete Pitcher offered by Sonntag Sports Management.

Kirk Anderson / John Linklater of Al Anderson's states, "It's an important part of what we do here at our store, to get involved in the training and development of players so they can have a more successful season and get more enjoyment from the game. Players who enjoy the sport, any sport, tend to stay active in it for longer and gain more benefits over time."
